ABOUT US

Community Based Events

The Almighty Blessing Arts Program actively engages with the community by organizing a variety of successful events, including Play Street Chicago, food, clothes, and toy drives, which foster a spirit of generosity and connection.

Additionally, we celebrate cultural milestones through events like El Dia Del Niño, Cinco De mayo, June Teenth, and Dia De Los Muertos, creating vibrant spaces for community togetherness and showcasing the rich diversity of our local heritage.

ABOUT US

Young Leaders Of Tomorrow

With a sharp focus on developing adaptability, self-motivation, organization skills, and robust leadership abilities, we are laying the groundwork for the Young Leaders of Tomorrow. Our vision extends to fostering these emerging leaders who are equipped with the conviction to inspire change and the capability to navigate the complexities of our rapidly evolving world.

TEAM

Agustin Perez

Mr. Perez is a passionate instructor at the Almighty Blessing Arts Program, dedicated to empowering the next generation of young artists. Having started as an at-risk youth from the West Side of Chicago, Agustin faced significant challenges, including involvement in gang life and the struggles of poverty. With his father being an immigrant who was deported and his mother battling cancer, Agustin's family fought hard against the hardships that surrounded them.

Alongside these challenges, he also navigated life with mild autism, PTSD, and major depression, experiences that have deeply informed his journey and resilience. Finding solace and purpose in the Almighty Blessing Arts Program, Agustin transformed his life and discovered the power of artistic expression as a means of healing and inspiration. Now, as a mentor, he is committed to guiding young individuals on their own journeys of self-discovery and personal growth through art, ensuring they have the tools and support to create positive change in their lives and communities.

Our Clubs

The clubs within the Almighty Blessing Arts Program are thoughtfully designed to promote freedom of choice, empowering students to explore their interests and passions. Each day, participants have the opportunity to select from a variety of clubs, ensuring they are never confined to a single focus throughout the year. This dynamic approach allows students to experience all the different clubs available, enabling them to discover and engage with the areas that resonate most deeply with them. By fostering an environment of creative exploration, the program cultivates a sense of ownership and enthusiasm, helping students to develop their unique talents and pursue their artistic passions.

Art

Offering comprehensive visual arts, and beyond, our program encourages proficiency and interactive engagement with the arts, elevating the creative process and innovative thinking.

Music

With the vision of empowering the next generation through the arts, our program offers comprehensive training in recording and engineering music, uniquely tailored to youths.

Digital Art

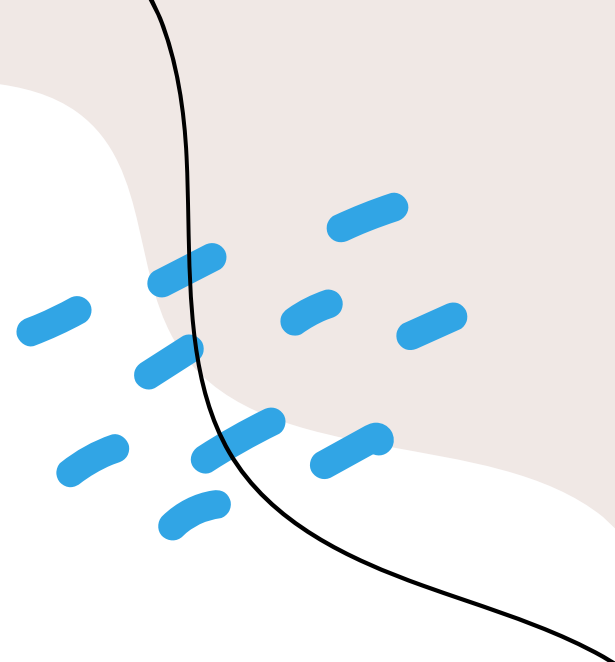

Media literacy is an expanded conceptualization of literacy that includes the ability to access and analyze media messages as well as create, reflect and take action, using the power of information and communication to make a difference in the world.

Media/Broadcasting

BEGINNERS COURSE

Music Engineering

With the vision of empowering the next generation through the arts, our program offers comprehensive training in recording and engineering music, uniquely tailored to youths. Participants learn in an engaging, state-of-the-art environment where creativity meets technology, mentored by industry professionals with a passion for teaching. From understanding the basics of sound waves to handling sophisticated recording equipment and software, our curriculum is designed to inspire and challenge students, encouraging them to explore their artistic abilities while gaining practical skills.

Our class and sessions are highly interactive, focusing on hands-on learning where students can immediately apply what they've learned in a real-world studio setting. At Almighty Blessing Arts Program, we believe in the transformative power of music and are committed to providing our students with the tools and knowledge they need to succeed both creatively and professionally in the music industry.

BEGINNERS COURSE

Social Media Literacy

Media literacy is an expanded conceptualization of literacy that includes the ability to access and analyze media messages as well as create, reflect and take action, using the power of information and communication to make a difference in the world. Help students to develop more positive attitudes.

We will be also covering media marketing and media analytics as well as building civic engagement in our communities with young critical thinkers through social media engagement.

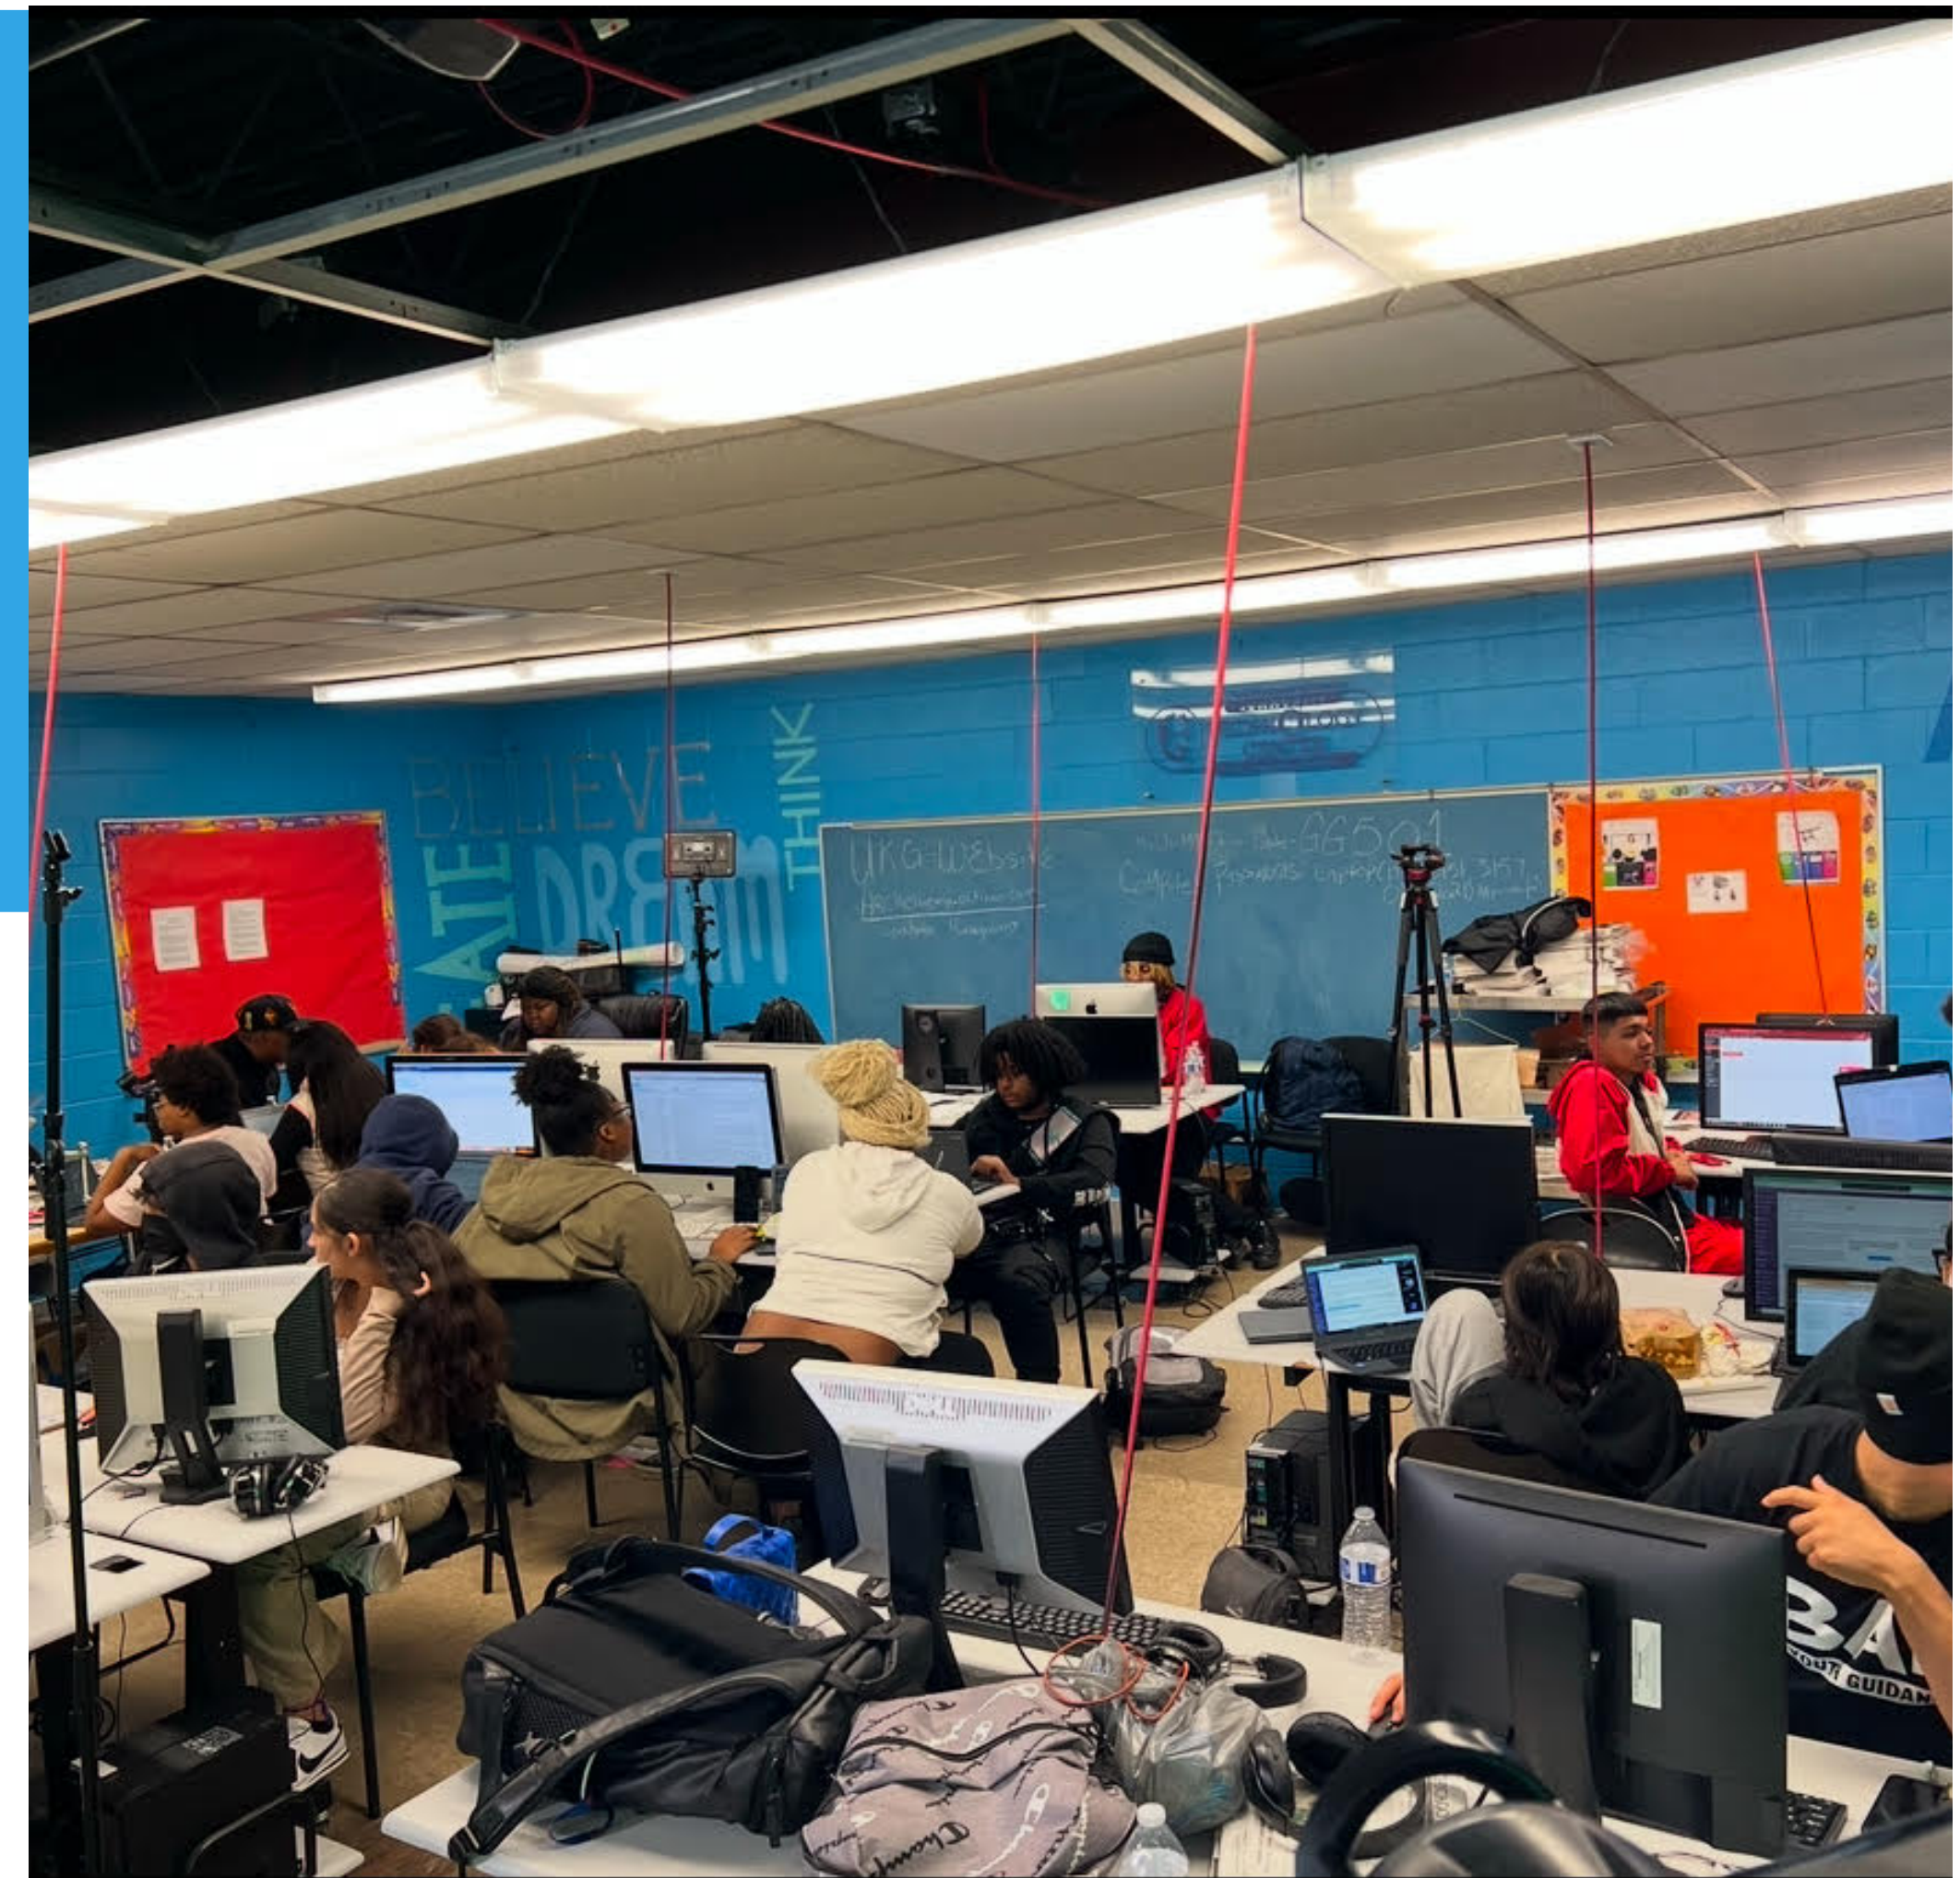

BEGINNERS COURSE

Media Broadcasting

Welcome to our Youth Broadcasting Program, where we introduce young learners to the exciting world of media production and broadcasting. Our program is dedicated to sparking an interest in broadcasting by providing kids with a thorough understanding of the industry, combined with practical experience in a fun and engaging environment. Our curriculum covers all the fundamental aspects of broadcasting, including audio and video production, scriptwriting, speaking and presentation skills, and the basics of operating broadcasting equipment. We aim to build a solid foundation that nurtures understanding and appreciation for the art and technology behind broadcasting.

Students in our Youth Broadcasting Program get hands-on experience from the start. They are involved in creating their own radio segments, podcasts, and even streaming media for online platforms. By actively participating in these projects, students not only learn how to manage and produce content but also gain confidence in their ability to communicate effectively with a large audience. Mentored by professionals with real-world experience in radio and television, our students receive personalized instruction and feedback. This mentorship is crucial in helping each student identify their strengths and areas for improvement.

Our program is also committed to promoting teamwork, as students collaborate on various projects, learning from one another and understanding the importance of every role in a broadcast environment. Whether a student is interested in being in front of the camera, behind the microphone, or controlling the production, our Youth Broadcasting Program is the perfect place to start exploring their potential and shaping their future in media.

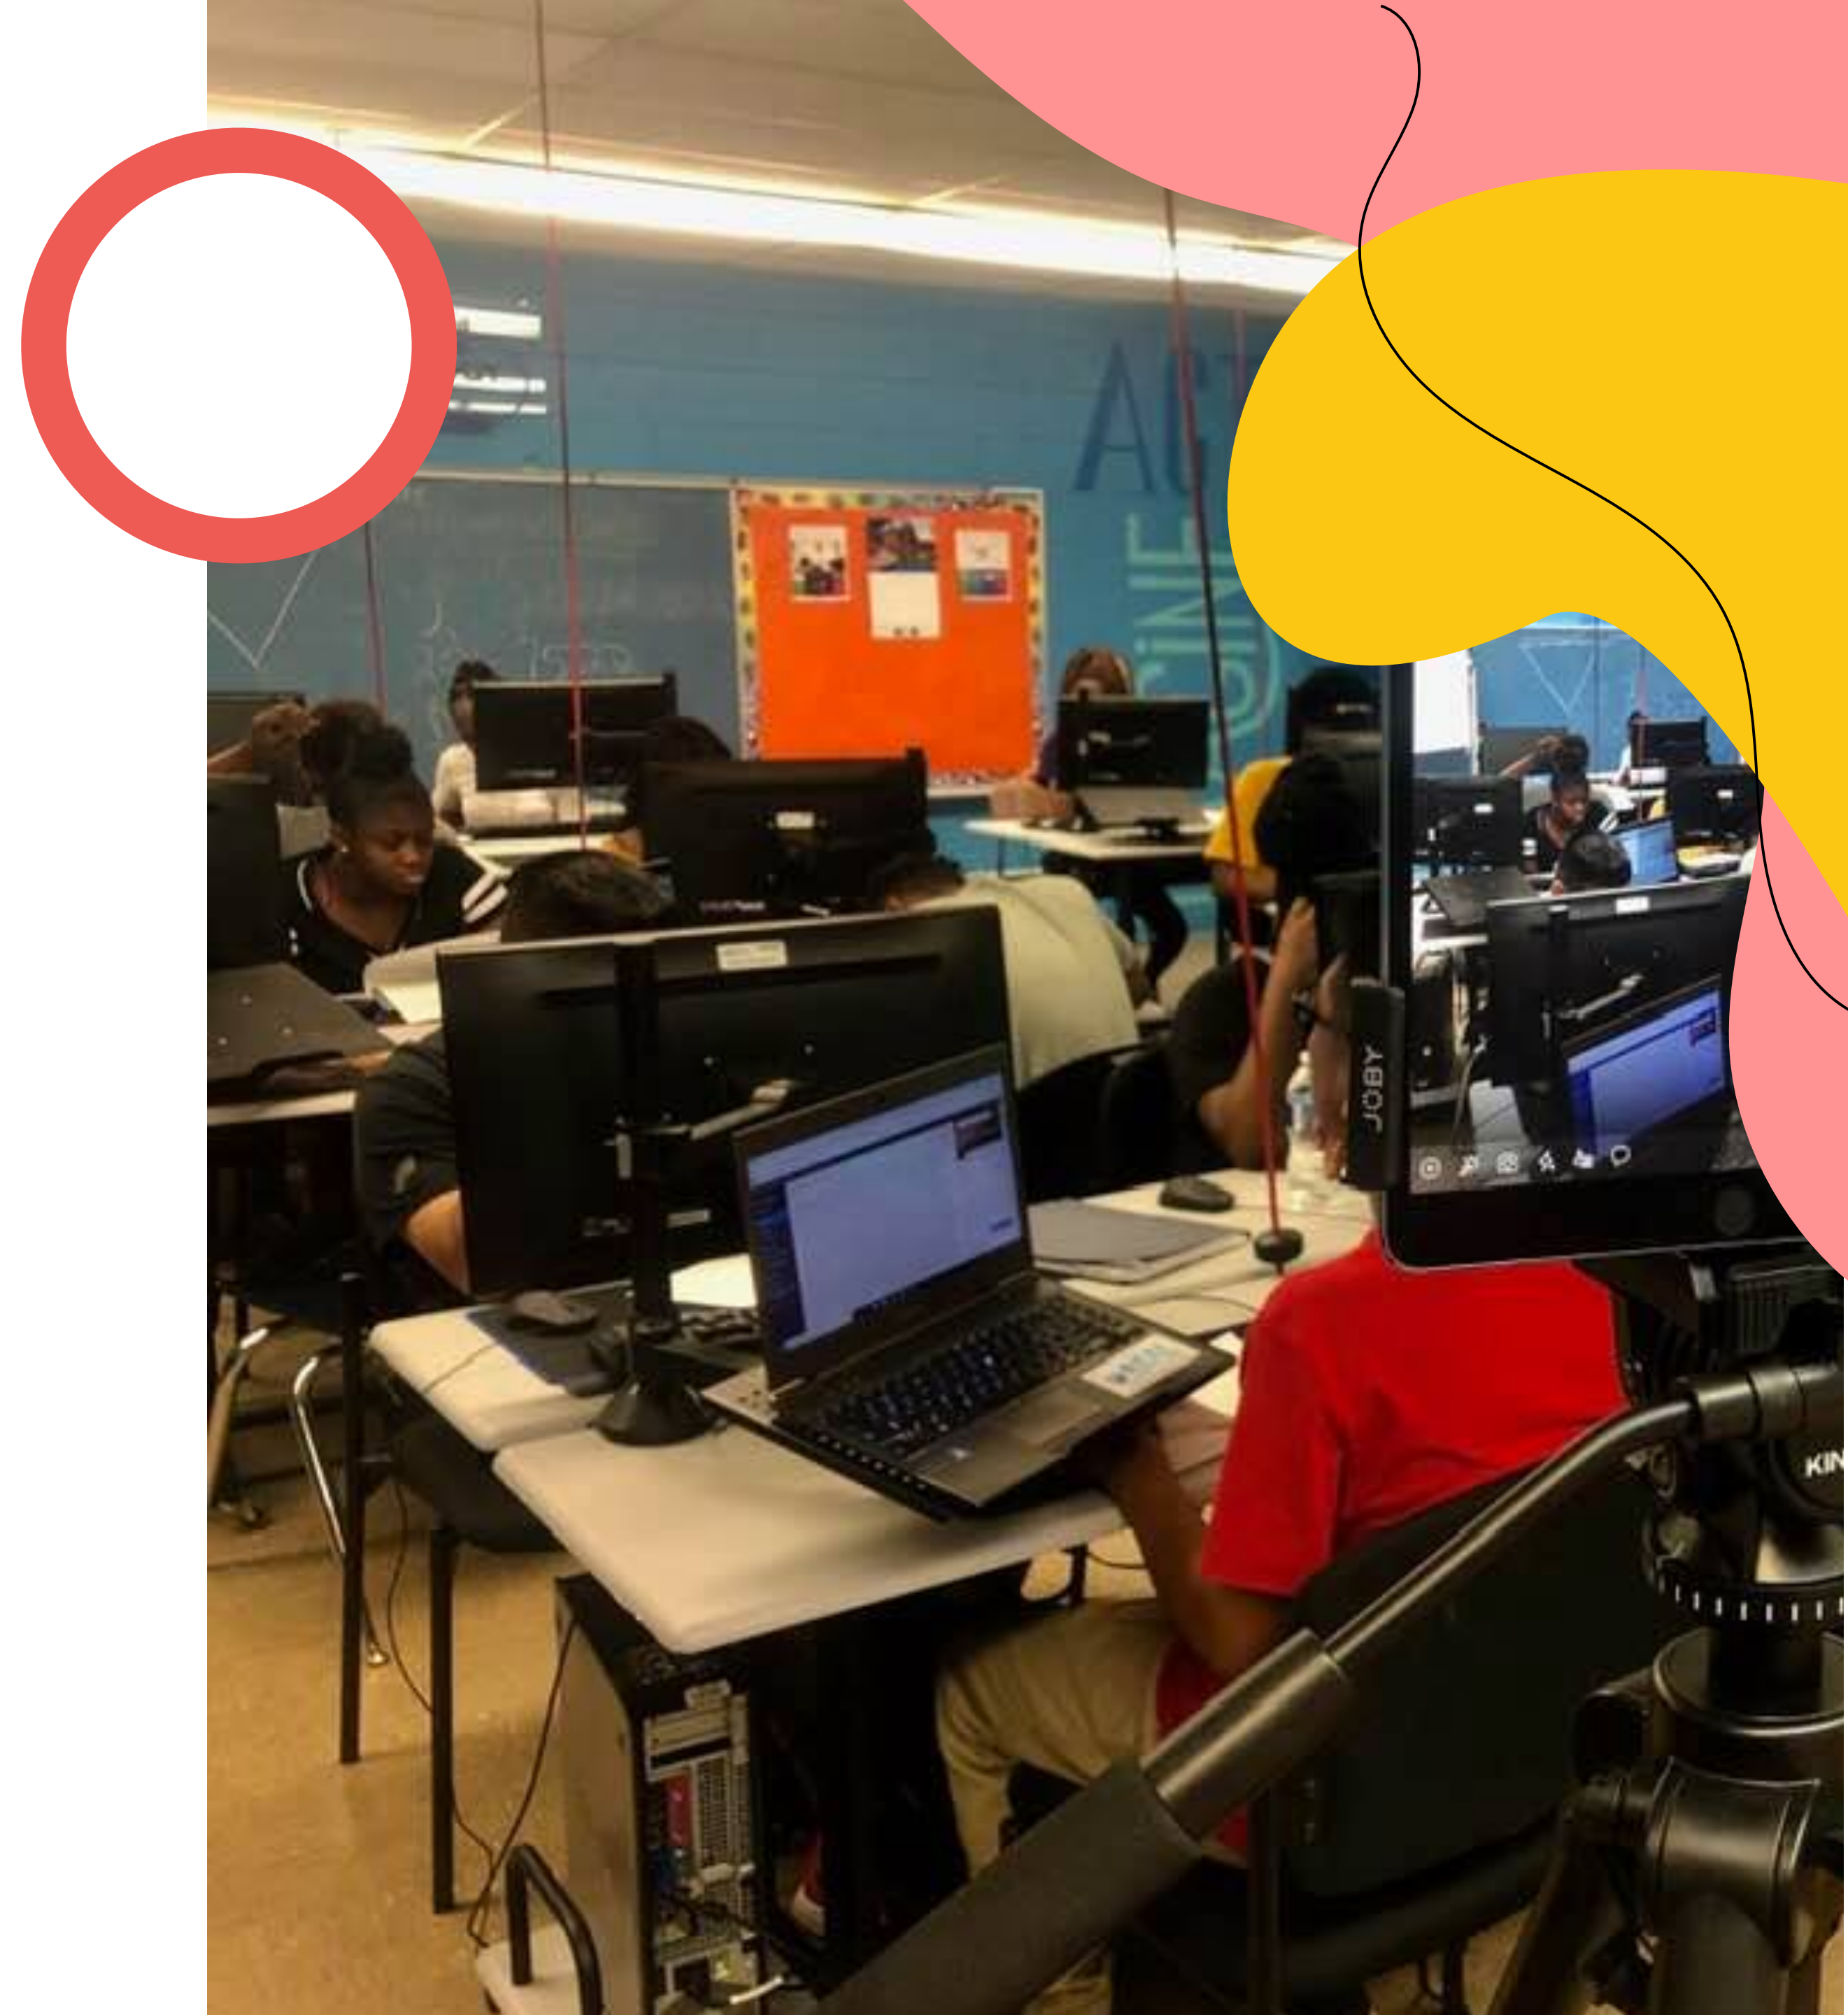

BEGINNERS COURSE

Script Writing

The Script Writing Club at the Almighty Blessing Arts Program offers aspiring writers a dynamic and supportive environment to hone their storytelling skills and craft compelling narratives. Participants explore various aspects of script writing, including character development, dialogue creation, and plot structure, while engaging in collaborative writing exercises and peer reviews.

This club encourages creativity and self-expression, empowering students to share their unique voices and perspectives through their scripts. A highlight of the club is the opportunity for graduates to collaborate with Chicano Hollywood, renowned for its influence in the Chicano and Chicana film industry and show production in LA.

This partnership provides invaluable insights and networking possibilities for students, helping them take their writing to the next level. By nurturing talent and connecting participants with industry leaders, the Script Writing Club equips young writers to pursue their dreams and make a meaningful impact in the world of film and television.

Chicano

HOLLYWOOD

Chicano Hollywood Midwest

Chicano Hollywood has established a strategic partnership with Juan Batalla, the CEO of the Almighty Blessing Arts Program, positioning him as the key holder for Chicano Hollywood in the Midwest. This collaboration aims to bridge the gap between emerging talent in the Midwest and the vibrant Chicano and Chicana film industry in Los Angeles.

Through this partnership, Juan Batalla facilitates access to valuable resources, mentorship, and networking opportunities for students in the Almighty Blessing Arts Program. Chicano Hollywood's involvement enriches the program by providing aspiring filmmakers and scriptwriters with insights into the industry, as well as the chance to collaborate on projects that reflect their unique cultural narratives and experiences.

This relationship not only empowers students but also fosters a thriving creative community that celebrates Chicano culture and storytelling. By connecting local talent with industry leaders, Chicano Hollywood and Juan Batalla are committed to nurturing the next generation of filmmakers and artists, helping them to make their mark in the entertainment world.

How it Would Help

Your generous contributions are vital to the success and sustainability of the Almighty Blessing Arts Program. Donations and sponsorships directly support the following key areas:

Instructors and Salaries: We invest in talented and dedicated instructors who inspire and mentor our youth, providing them with guidance and expertise across various artistic disciplines. Your support ensures that we can attract and retain top educators committed to our mission.

Meals: Nutritious meals are essential for the well-being and focus of our students. By ensuring that all program participants have access to regular meals, we create a nurturing environment where young artists can thrive without the distraction of hunger.

Supplies: Art supplies, technology, and other resources are fundamental to providing comprehensive arts education. Contributions help keep our program equipped with the materials needed for students to fully explore their creativity and develop their skills.

Field Trips: Experiential learning opportunities, such as field trips to cultural sites, theaters, and art exhibits, expand our students' horizons and inspire them by experiencing the arts beyond the classroom. Your donations make these enriching experiences possible. Through your support, the Almighty Blessing Arts Program continues to transform lives by fostering creativity, personal growth, and community engagement among the youth in our community. Thank you for partnering with us in empowering the Leaders of tomorrow.
